CAI Awarded Contract to Supply 20 MW Power Generation Systems to a Nigeria Based Oil & Gas Company

Corona, California, USA — Combustion Associates, Inc. (CAI) based in Corona, California was recently awarded a contract to supply three units of its Spirit™6 MW modular gas turbine power generation systems. The contract was signed with a Houston based infrastructure solutions provider for their client in Africa. The three units of CAI's Spirit™6 will generate 20 MW of electricity to power a group of gas compressors to transfer natural gas from the site to other locations via pipeline.

Spirit™6 incorporates MAN Energy Solutions' MGT6000 high-efficiency gas turbine which will deliver the required power using Dry Low Emission (DLE) technology and natural gas as a low-emission fuel.

"This is the beginning of a long-term partnership between CAI and MAN, and we plan to work together on other power projects in Africa and other emerging markets," said Mr. Mukund Kavia, CAI Chairman.

"We are honored to collaborate with CAI on this important power generation project," said Sebastian Könnig, Project Manager, Sales of Gas Turbines, at MAN Energy Solutions.

The first phase of the project, which is equipment delivery, is forecasted to be complete by end of 2019.
